Anything you would prefer not to receive/have plenty of? Not at this time.

What can your classroom parents do to help you the most? Partner with me for your child's happiness and success and maintain open communication.

One thing you would love for your parents to know this year? We are a team and it's going to be a GREAT year at BWE! If challenges arise, we will navigate them together. Since we learn through play in ECSE, I'd love to know all about your little one's favorite activities, characters, toys, games, shows, foods, etc. Positive reinforcement is a powerful motivator.
